Executive Director of Investment
Qatar Development Bank
Qatar

Mr. Mohammed Mubarak Al-Khater joined Qatar Development Bank after the merger of Enterprise Qatar with Qatar Development Bank in the beginning of 2015, where he served, since 2014, as the Executive Director of Financial Services at Enterprise Qatar.

Mr. Mohammed Mubarak Al Khater has developed deep practical experience based on his legal background and he is considered as a seasoned lawyer specializing in the establishment of corporate entities. He has served as an attorney with Latham & Watkins LLP which is the third largest international law firm in the world where he held several positions in the headquarters office in both Doha and New York. During his tenure, he provided legal advice on capital markets, corporate and commercial transactions, establishment of joint ventures and billion dollar debt offerings in addition to his focus in corporate mergers and acquisitions deals.

Prior to that, he worked for Qatar Petroleum as a legal counsel, where he was involved in the establishment of a number of joint ventures with international oil companies, the drafting of LNG sale purchase agreements, and providing general corporate legal advice.

Mr. Al-Khater has a bachelor's degree in law from Cardiff University and is working to complete an Executive MBA degree from HEC Paris.
